

Hornell Public Library Disclosure of Interest Form

The conflict of interest policy, which sets forth standards of expected conduct, includes a provision which requires trustees and non-union employees to disclose all interests which could result in a conflict.

Please complete and return the enclosed Disclosure of Interests Form. Please be assured that the disclosure requirements are intended to provide the Board with a systematic and ongoing method of disclosing and ethically resolving potential conflicts of interest. Although it is impossible to list every circumstance giving rise to a possible conflict of interest, the following will serve as a guide to the types of activities that might cause conflicts and that should be fully reported:

1. Outside Interests

- A. To hold, directly or indirectly, a position or a material financial interest in any other entity from which the individual has reason to believe the Hornell Public Library secures goods or services (including the services of buying or selling stocks, bonds, or other securities), or that provides services competitive with the system.
- B. To compete, directly or indirectly with the Hornell Public Library in the purchase or sale of property or property rights, interests or services.

2. Outside Activities

To render directive, managerial, or consultative services to any outside concern that does business with, or competes with the services of the Hornell Public Library, or to render other services in competition with the Hornell Public Library.

3. Inside Information

To disclose or use information relating to the Hornell Public Library's business for the personal profit or advantage of the individual or his/her respective families or households.

4. Gifts, Gratuities, and Entertainment

To accept gifts, excessive entertainment, or other favors from any outside concern that does, or is seeking to do, business with, or is a competitor of, the Hornell Public Library - under circumstances from which it might be inferred that such action was intended to influence or possibly would influence the individual in the performance of his/her duties.

This prohibition is not intended to preclude business meals or other nominal benefits in the reasonable and ordinary course of business.

Full disclosure of any situation in doubt should be made so as to permit an impartial and objective determination. It should be particularly noted that disclosure relates not only to yourself, but also to your respective families or households.
